

Student Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

IDENTIFY THE TYPE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION*Directions: Determine the type of electronic communication used in each item.

1. Johnny used his cell phone to key a message to Josh.

 Chatting                       Podcasting                       Discussion board Blog                               Text message                       Email

2. Tom posted a question about his computer and later read answers other people had posted.

 Chatting                       Podcasting                       Discussion board Blog                               Text message                       Email

3. Jill and Meg are recording a radio broadcast of the school's announcements for the week and placing them on the school's web site.

 Chatting                       Podcasting                       Discussion board Blog                               Text message                       Email

4. While online, Jan sends a message to Mark, who is not online, letting him know she will be late picking him up tomorrow morning.

 Chatting                       Podcasting                       Discussion board Blog                               Text message                       Email

5. Chris is documenting his daily progress while dieting on the Internet. He is recording his inner most thoughts and feelings from day to day.

 Chatting                       Podcasting                       Discussion board Blog                               Text message                       Email

6. Matt and Joe are talking to each other by sending messages back and forth over the Internet in real time.

 Chatting                       Podcasting                       Discussion board Blog                               Text message                       Email